INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS COMMITTEE

PREAMBLE

An important factor in giving a business a competitive edge is intellectual property. More valuable than an organization's concrete assets are its intangible assets, which include knowledge, innovations and well-designed goods. As a result, the Arignar Anna College (Arts & Science) Intellectual Property Rights Policy Document (henceforth referred to as the Institution) aims to advise faculty, research scholars and students on the Institution's policies and procedures regarding intellectual property rights (IPR) and responsibilities, including the nature of intellectual property (IP), its ownership, technology transfer, exploitation and confidentiality requirements. This document's policy is likely to fulfil the Institution's goal to fostering academic choice and offering a supportive environment for research and growth.

PURPOSE

The Institution has developed this policy to manage intellectual property rights in order to:

- Facilitate, promote and protect scientific inquiry and research involved in R&D;
- Provide a research environment that leads to the envelopment of intellectual property;
- Create procedural rules and an IPR management policy;
- Establish guidelines for the Institution's do's and don'ts;
- Administrate rewards to community creators tin accordance with this Policy and make the Institution's eligible for sponsorship under different research funding programs;
- Enhance the Institution's reputation as a leading academic research organization by utilizing intellectual property;
- Inform the inventor of the laws and regulations that apply.

OBJECTIVES

- ❖ Raising awareness of intellectual property among faculty and students at the college.
- ❖ To conduct workshops, seminar and training course of IPR.
- ❖ To disseminate knowledge on patents, patent regime in India and abroad and registration aspects.
- ❖ To impart training on future endeavours regarding patent filing process.
- ❖ To inspire faculty members and scholars to go for patentable works.

VISION

In an increasingly technology world, academic research is the foundation of any nation's economic success. The college takes concerted efforts to align its mission with the national goal of achieving technological self-reliance by fostering interdisciplinary research and institutional collaborative research.

MISSION

The IPR cell promotes a good IP strategy in order to protect the intellectual property of the College's large base of informed faculty and exceptionally brilliant students. The college's regular project and research activities provide the potential for innovations. So, we're in the process of establishing organized progressions to fund, stimulate and foster innovation.

Research is believed in the Institute as practice of profession and not career. IPR cell is here to provide relent, timely and targeted support to originators in protecting their IPR and to enhancement confidence in generating IPR to make our Institute Independence in Finances.
